

MONROE HOUSEHOLD HAPPENINGS

Fallin' for Fall

September 2023

Live Music by Rob Tomaro

September 12th at 2:00 p.m.

Rob is singing us songs that conjure up everything we love about the Fall season. We're celebrating our love for the natural world as it dramatically transforms around us!

Oktoberfest Party

September 5th, 1:30 Vard & 2:30 Campbell
Roll out the barrel! Enjoy a (non-alcoholic) beer with us along with cheese, sausages, and of course Polka music!

Outing: Monroe Arts Center

September 26th at 2:00 p.m.

This month, we are exploring the natural world as it changes. Monroe Arts Center has a special photography exhibit that we'll be visiting to show us everything we love in nature! Please contact your QOL if you'd like to attend with us.

Backyard Scavenger Hunt

Every Sunday Afternoon

From colorful leaves and butterflies to the clouds in the sky, there's always something interesting to see for those who look closely. See how many you can check off the list and get a prize for finding them all!

Feather in the Fall

September 18th at 2:00 p.m.

Juliet Moderow is coming from the Northwest Illinois Audubon Society to teach us about bird identification with a special emphasis on bird migrations. She will be bringing in specimens that the residents can see and touch!

Fall Door Decoration Contest

All Month

It's time for a fall contest! Team will compete by choosing a resident and helping them decorate their door. Supplies will be provided and the prize is a gift card!

Fall Color Tours by Trishaw

September 11- 21, variable dates

Explore the changing world around us by taking a tour of our neighborhood as it transforms from lush green to crisp golds, maroons, and orange colors. We'll go on scavenger hunts and take photographs.
