OAK CREEK HOUSEHOLD HAPPENINGS JANUARY IN THE LAST FRONTIER

Elvis is in the Building

Tuesday, January 14th in Honadel at 2 PM and Studer at 3:30 PM

Residents will enjoy a fun filled afternoon with a performance by Elvis! Bring your dancing shoes and join the fun!

Baker's Club: Taste of the Tundra

Every Wednesday Afternoon

Bundle up and join us for a chilly Alaskan-inspired baking adventure! Our Baker's Club will be whipping up frosty delights like "Aurora Parfaits," "Arctic Snowballs," and other sweet treats inspired by the northern wilderness. Together, we'll mix, bake, and share stories that warm the heart—even when the theme is ice-cold!

Happy Hour: Northern Lights & Bites

Every Thursday at 2 PM

Sit back, relax, and let the magic of Alaska light up your afternoon! Join us for Northern Lights and Bites—a dazzling happy hour inspired by the beauty of the Arctic sky. Enjoy colorful cocktails, tasty appetizers, and great company as we toast to the wonder of the north and the joy of togetherness.

Wellness in the Wilderness

Every Tuesday Morning

This nature-inspired strength and balance class channels the power and grace of Alaska's wildlife. We'll lift our "antlers" with light weights, "crawl like bears" with gentle wall or table movements, and stretch our "eagle wings" wide. Breathe in deep, like the crisp forest air, and enjoy a refreshing journey to wellness in the wilderness.

Last Frontier Jeopardy

Every Friday Morning

Test your knowledge and take an adventure to Alaska in this special Jeopardy-style challenge! From glaciers and wildlife to famous landmarks and frosty fun facts, we'll explore "The Last Frontier" one question at a time. Join us for friendly competition, laughter, and a brain-boosting journey through the wilds of Alaska!

Crafter's Corner: Creating in the Cold

Every Sunday & Tuesday Afternoon

Bundle up your creativity and join us for a frosty crafting session inspired by Alaska's winter beauty! We'll make cozy, snow-kissed creations that capture the spirit of the north—sparkling pinecones, glowing aurora art, and more. It's the perfect way to stay warm while letting your imagination wander through the tundra!

Fly Azura Airlines to Alaska

Wednesday, January 22nd in Studer at 10 AM and Honadel at 2 PM

Come fly Azura Airlines for a virtual trip to Alaska! Our residents will check in at our airport and fly the friendly skies with our stewardesses Valerie and Bella. We will take photos with an igloo and see all the exciting places Alaska has to offer! At the end residents will be able to enjoy a frozen treat!
